OVERVIEW

Lisa is a graduate of Suffolk University Law School, where she earned her Juris Doctor degree with the highest honors, cum laude. Lisa was also a distinguished member of the Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society and practiced as a Rule 3:03 Student Attorney in Suffolk's transactional law clinic. Prior to her legal studies, Lisa pursued her undergraduate education at Cornell University, graduating with a dual degree in anthropology and business management.

Prior to joining Allcock & Marcus, Lisa interned at a law firm focusing on bankruptcy matters and interned at a title insurance company, where she refined her skills in real estate law. Lisa also made significant contributions to the Greater Boston Legal Services, particularly within the Asian Outreach Unit.

At Allcock & Marcus, Lisa plays a pivotal role as a member of our Condominium Collection Team. Her in-depth understanding of bankruptcy matters and real estate law ensures that our clients receive expert guidance. Additionally, Lisa's skillset extends to litigation matters, where her dedication to detail and unwavering commitment are evident.

Outside of her professional life, Lisa enjoys her two dogs, Remy and Kobe, traveling, cooking and yoga. These pursuits reflect her well-rounded nature and her ability to balance the demands of her legal career.
